Hi Mr Morrison

I just got word from Equifax that they have removed the Home Equity Line of Credit from my credit report. I've been for months arguing back and forth with Beth Page Federal Credit Union as to the point that I didn't have knowledge or conduct the transactions and the monies were all paid to a credit card that is not my card. Finally they have accepted the dispute on the category of an account take-over.

With this removed does this potentially change anything with filing as it should have removed approx $124k of debt.

My sincere best,

Dear Mr Morrison just to be on the safe side do you feel that we should include the Bethpage Federal Credit Union for the home equity given that is going to be key issue with matrimonial. if possible I'd love to be able to retain my American Express and Chase credit card but understand if I can't retain any of them.

I'm a little unclear as to what the process is from here and kind of getting after my husbands assets for the debts. Included within here are going to be debts that are medical related like North Shore Long Island Jewish and other positions that he is stolen medical reimbursements for which I'm being sued

Hi Brian:

We will correct that.

There are other documents that need to be prepared and my paralegal will be reaching out to you later today or tomorrow to get these accomplished.

Please send me that drop box that you sent again I don't have access to it right now as I am working remotely.

Thank you,

Dear Mr Morrison

I just wanted to check with you as I was reviewing the documents I received from the bankruptcy court and a couple of things are not listed correctly namely my legal last name is Denker - Youngs. I also noticed that Beth Page Federal Credit Union isn't listed on that by far is the largest creditor almost $124,000. Additionally there are medical providers and such. I just wanted to make sure that I did not do anything incorrectly or if I need to redo something.

Hope you had a safe trip and thank you again for everything.

Hi Mr Morrison

Let me know if this link works

https://www.dropbox.com/sh/4v9elk7asvrad4f/AAAY2wA_rFrEkvT7zobGkvqa?dl=0

In terms of notifications it I'm not sure if Jennifer notified the court yet or not but should I inform my and strange spouse that I filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy? I did come across a Fordham University law review and brushed up a bit on the concept of divorce and homesteading. If I understood the concept correctly based upon homesteading to protect my interest in our marital home which is separate from an equitable distribution it would put me in a position technically of having greater interest in the marital home then John and potentially something Jennifer should leveraged to get him the hell out and for other's support the need for me to get back to work fully as I have chapter 11 obligations I'm going to need to begin to make good on.

We are scheduled I believe back in front of the matrimonial judge March 30 and I'm almost wondering if it might make sense to have you or Jim join because I'm nervous that perhaps Jennifer doesn't fully grasp or understand how to leverage any of this to my benefit and turn the tables on my thief of a husband or how it impacts the matrimonial proceeding.

Dear Marcos

wanted to touch base because I did notice that Bethpage Federal Credit Union home equity line of credit hadn't been added to list the creditors and that's probably the most beautiful and contentious part of my debt and has an outstanding balance of over $123,000.

I don't know if its a mission is on purpose the wanted to you should we bring it to your attention thank you hope you both have had a good week. not sure if I should be asking the trustee this question but I don't think I have his email address. is it okay for me to take $100 out of the account for pocket money as I need some cash. also was curious I need to get the car inspected do I need permission for that expense?

I was noticing that the Bethpage home equity hasn't been incorporated onto to lift the creditors and that's really the biggest contention at $124,000 almost how does that get handled or addressed?

just an FYI that our hearing is scheduled for next Thursday my husbands attorney did try to adjourn it blaming the bankruptcy and the judge refused so we are on for hearing of occupancy possession I don't know if I'm reading statutes differently but is there anything that Jennifer can get that also lists the house is part of the bankruptcy estate or my bankruptcy estate that she could include together with other evidence I have on my husband's perjuring himself and making false statements on his initial cross order that got him temp occupancy the could build a stronger case for me retaining possession of the house?

Hi Mr. Morrison

Thank you for again for this morning and your time.

I texted with Jennifer Schenker who apparently hasn't made any effort to inform the court of anything. I blatantly asked her didn't she feel that it was important for the judge to know he was playing hanky panky with the insurance on the house before the judge makes a decision on exclusive use and occupancy for which she didn't answer. Is this something the bankruptcy trustee might be able to inform the judge about or perhaps even you via note or letter?

My husband uses several aliases but his information is as follows:

BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I don't own property, I own shares of stock.

LAWRENCE MORRISON: No I know, I know.

BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: that can't be homestead.

LAWRENCE MORRISON: It can be, it depends on--

LAWRENCE MORRISON: It's worth a thousand dollars, and it's a rental.

LAWRENCE MORRISON: I've had--

BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: by definition, it's a rental.

LAWRENCE MORRISON: No no, I have nothing to argue with you. I've had other cases where we've had difference of opinion.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: This is--

2 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Can we take a step back? Because I think we're having a
3 misunderstanding. I didn't understand what your intentions were, I think. So I'd like to 4 take a step back and start again.

6 You sent sort of a flurry of emails yesterday. and I hope I've misunderstood what you
7 were trying to do. And I think we can come to a common consensus that can help you
8 achieve your goal.

10 Your goal seems to be that YOU do not want to have state relief, in the bankruptcy. So--

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I'm going to be quite frank with you. because I at this 12 point don't know who to trust.

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Well, let's get past that. I've got to focus on the way here.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: OK, but I'm not just playing it online, because he spent 15 most of the night submitting paperwork to the FBI. So my husband's mortgage fraud is 16 now on file officially with the FBI. The judge just caught, got everything I need for the 17 appellate division this morning, and that's all done because, Simonetti this morning,
18 wants confirmation. Judge moved the date, wants confirmation that I'm not filing for writ
19 this morning.

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: These are all matrimonial issues. Soo, I'm just trying to take
2 this--

3 I'm trying to handle this as a lawyer.

4 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: right. And that's fine. when Jim said call, speak to you.
5 And I've been up front and honest from day 1. Whether or not, whatever, thought you
6 were the one and only person in this entire shananagan that I thought was being 7 forthcoming with me.

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: And I have always been forthcoming with you. But let's, but 9 that's where I take issue.

11 First of all it's not, there is no issue about that. I've always been--

12 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I, the transcript that's redacted gets released, and--

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: It's always released, and within a period of time.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: No. You know what? My homestead is Huntington. I was 15 forced out of my home. that's, period. Matter of fact by my husband's own submission--

16 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Let's take a step back.

17 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: My husband's own submission--

18 LAWRENCE MORRISON: And you're upset with your husband, as you should be.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I'm upset because I don't understand where there is
2 supposed to be the positions. My husband hasn't turned over.

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Slow down. Because you got a lot of stuff going on. I'd like
4 to--

5 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: You're right. You want to know something Mr. Morrison?
6 I'm ready to have a nervous breakdown.

7 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: well, I've known you for not very long. You've always
8 been very upset and nervous. the concept here was to address the debt. the credit cards,
9 the you can--

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: The home equity's not included. The home equity's debt.

11 LAWRENCE MORRISON: That can be taken care of. these are things that are not 12 material. These are things that we can deal with as lawyers. and, I'll say this, and I've 13 been doing this a long time. And I, you know.

14
15 I'd like you personally. I think what's happened to you is terrible. And I'd like to continue
16 to help you. however, you have been through many many attorneys, and there's always a
17 problem with your attorneys. and I'm saying, I'm not judging you or saying anything
18 about that. But the point is, I raised an issue which I think is a good one. The fact that,
19 you want a certain goal accomplished. Which is to objective state relief. You cannot do it

1 the way you want to do it. So, if I'm going to be a good lawyer and advocate for you, I
2 can figure out a way that works within the rules.

4 Because, the way you want to do it is not appropriate. I have to be direct with you.

5 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: OK, and Mr. Morrison--

6 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But let me--

7 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Where I'm coming from, I continue to be vict--

8 I was raised that you, and, I don't know if it's the American way. I was raised, you instill
9 the fear of a court of law. But I was raised YOU respect the law. And I was raised with 10 this concept that justice prevails, and that's exactly what I've done for a year is tell the 11 truth..

12 and YOU know what, granted, I--

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: No one's saying you're not.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: OK. This was not--

15 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I'm trying to get rid of your debt. That's what I'm trying to 16 do. and you've got to finish with me.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: When we started, it was also a matter of my
2 understanding, the way it was explained, was, well, because my husband has converted
3 [to ciphened? 0:16:55.4]

4 --And I did just a rough accounting myself, because the court, whatever. Over 217
5 thousand dollars. That's way more than I even owe. and I was told, well, you can follow
6 and litigate to get it back to paid debt. that was my understanding.

7 LAWRENCE MORRISON: We're working on that. And that's what the trustees can do.
8 That, and what do you mean?

9 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Except--

10 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But just one problem.

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Except, when I see this, when I see what happened last 12 week, which--

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Nothing happened. But this has to be granted. This has been 14 granted October 22.

15 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Mr. Morrison, you weren't standing in King's County
16 Supreme Court, I was. The day after this got field. Where consecutively, same time, my 17 attorney, my former attorney files in order to show cause because I'm adopting now, last 18 night it dawned on me. and I have the--

1 He actually sent me an email worded specifically, warning me of what they were doing.
2 because, they're, I have emails from him. But, words that are capitalized and highlighted
3 and YOU want to, attorneys, there were no problems with the attorneys.

5 What I hold accountable attorneys, because I was, again, raised that a court of law, you
6 tell the truth, justice prevails Who do I have to hold accountable but my attorney, when 7 all that prevails is lie after lie?

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Well that's a matrimonial case, and I wasn't involved in that.
9 And we talked about it in the beginning, and I never did.

10

11 that case was lie after lie from what you told me, and I believe you.

12 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: And you called me--

13 M@: But--

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I said I'd come to you and say, "You know what? If the 15 one person that I think, the one person that I said--

16 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I haven't changed at all.

17 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Except, when I see this, you laugh at me--

18 LAWRENCE MORRISON: what, there's nothing here. All they're saying, let's talk about 19 what this is.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: It was contrived conferred on them, because Maria, health
2 therapist walked right into court.

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Let's address that, let's address that. There is no specific, I
4 think you're saying there's some kind of a conspiracy here involving this file over here.
5 Take that off, out of Your head.

6 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Let me explain to you exactly what I'm thinking, because 7 the timing of everything Terrance Shryer was discharged well over a month ago. Out of 8 the blue, all of a sudden, and I have copies of the docket, every single day that there were 9 changes.

11 All of a sudden he files it, just in time for it to get filed, signed. The day before we have 12 to appear in King's County, on divorce section for annulment on the grounds of fraud.
13 The same day that that gets filed on docket, almost within a half hour of each other, this 14 gets filed.

15 LAWRENCE MORRISON: It wasn't done on emergency case.

16 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: This was done--

17 No, but this gets a to--

18 The very next day, we show up in court. mind you, my husband hasn't done any of his 19 appearance--

1 Hasn't respond--

2 And, you know what his attorney tells the judge? Gets a stay in effect for 30 days, mind
3 you that supersedes our next court at 9:30 AM.

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Let me answer that question. Nothing that happened in the 5 bankruptcy court has changed the status quo. the bankruptcy was the way it was when 6 you filed it. the fact that they filed this motion didn't change that.

8 Then nothing has been heard, nothing has been determined.

9 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: well his claim is--

10 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I don't care what his claim is. I'm telling you. So, no. At the 11 end of the day, and I read the transcript. I actually stood up for you. I remember what she 12 was saying. she was like, "The guy's got to go in chapter 7."

13 I'm like, you're an honorable person.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: And so did YOU and the trustee both that I--

15 LAWRENCE MORRISON: And so, but be fair to me. I was there, honorably standing up
16 for you an saying, you're an honorable person and you want to pay your debts. That's 17 what I said. I looked at. And there's nothing in that transcript that's troubling.

18 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: But, understand where I'm coming from right here.

19 Because I--

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I don't. I'll tell you why I don't.

2 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I had a judge that's lying, I had a judge that's dirty.

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I'll tell you why I don't. First of all, I can--

4 This judge is a federal bankruptcy judge, the chief judge. She's completely honorable,
5 there's no nonsense.

6 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I'm not saying about her. I know I did something.

7 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I don't know what you're saying, about her or not.

8 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I'm not saying her. I'm saying Suffolk County--

9 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I'm telling you the way that I practice. So here's what I'm 10 going to do. because I want to, we started something here, I want to finish it. In the 11 future, if you're upset, emails, they don't send the proper message. Just call me. Just call
12 me on the phone and say, "I'm upset about this."

13 "I'm troubled by this."

14 Or send me an email saying, "Let's talk."

15 These emails back and forth, the reason--

16 My response was not intended to be, I guess, difficult. But, you were saying things in the 17 emails that were not accurate. So, and I didn't understand where you were coming from.

18 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I only copied you on the email--

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But then I took a step back, and I realized, I got it. I know
2 what you were trying to do. You just want to make sure that he doesn't get state relief, for
3 whatever reason

4 , you're concerned about. And I think what you're saying is, you want to finish the job of 5 getting the discovery in the bankruptcy before you finish your divorce. I think that's what
6 you're telling me. But you didn't say that..

7 You write an email that the assistance has got us, and you're like, "OH my god, the 8 lawyer--"

9 And this and that.

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Here's the second part that YOU don't know. So, I was 11 supposed--

12 I canceled my trip. I was supposed to leave for India on Sunday. For the next month.
13 Now I've even made very clear, for weeks, that I'm not available in October. They've 14 gotten from the 8th to the 19th, I've said three to both the court and Marie Allen
15 purchased simultaneously, ignored ignored ignored. Until I decide I'm going to file an 16 emergency motion for a writ yesterday.

17 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But these are all matrimonial. this is not stuff I'm working 18 on.

19 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: but here's the thing. This is the thing. when I read what my 20 husband's statement here is, that the courts, the lower court's ready to rule on the--

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: So it's a deception. We'll deal with it.

2 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: and, I--

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Let this, Nothing here is here until the, look at the thing.

4 You're a smart guy. What thing does it say, when is this being heard?

5 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: The 15th.

6 LAWRENCE MORRISON: No.

7 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: The 22nd.

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: No.

9 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: The 22nd.

10 LAWRENCE MORRISON: what's today?

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Today's October 3rd.

12 LAWRENCE MORRISON: No, it's October 2nd. that's 20 days away. we have time to 13 address this.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: except, here's--

15 If I'm not in the country, and I don't show up, no attorney, a matrimonial could be entered 16 in default. Which is what I perceive my husband's going for. My husband has no intent.

17 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I don't know what you're doing there sort of tried to keep me
18 in the loop, but I'm not hearing it like that.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: My husband knows that the judge has been caught with
2 his pants down. The judge has been--
3 Terry Schriever? He warned, the judge has been redirecting the attorneys. and, remember
4 we had him and I as copied to you, just to make sure==

5 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You had real issues with the way you've been treated in the 6 state court system.

7 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: right, and--

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: And I don't know, you think it's the suffering dishonesty, I
9 don't know what it really is. But I think you've gotten a really bad shake there. I think you 10 have.

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: And so understand from my point, I don't--

12 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But they're calling up and saying, "What is going on with 13 this motion?"

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Understand that I don't know who to trust.

15 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But I don't know who to trust either. Because you had so
16 many different lawyers. I don't know if I can trust you. Can I trust you?

17 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Mr. Morrison--

18 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Be fair, no, be fair. Can I trust you? can I trust you?

19 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I threw up my brains there. If that's everything--

1 You know what?

2 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I think you're a very smart guy, and I take cases, I Finished?
3 peggedshed? 0:23:26.1]

4 --my cases, and I want to help you. But can I trust you?

5 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Yeah. Mr. Morrison, you know what? I made a mistake
6 trusting the wrong person. The person I--

7 Is a white-collar criminal. Mortgage for 81 or something? A person does not descend and 8 go with such figures to the point that I have, off of a lie. Rather, my husband couldn't 9 even close his home. I had to--

10 There was a check accepted late in May--

11 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I know all these things happened. but if we're going to finish
12 our job together, you can't send me emails which are really kind of name-calling. That's 13 what, I was really offended by that. First of all it's not, that's not who I am.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: They said, well, my---

15 I took your response, again, the wrong way in terms of where I was in the moment, and in 16 terms of, I caught the judge yesterday with his pants down

17 LAWRENCE MORRISON: that's fair.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Understand, you know, I don't know who to trust
2 anymore. Except that, this house sells or he gets that listed, I've lost everything. And you
3 want to know something? I went to work with 42 staples in my stomach. I've done--

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I know that. But you've got to--

5 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: well I--

6 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But you've got to help me finish this case. When without,
7 you know--

8 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Their accounts, the money--

9 In all honesty, I shouldn't be bankrupt.

10 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You shouldn't, you are bankrupt because of him. And that's 11 the system. that's what the judge was saying at that hearing, was going to a 7 to get rid of 12 the debt. that's the benefit of the system. That's half of the job. getting rid of the debt.

14 The second half is, you want to do a pherensic examination where the money went. And 15 that's something that I will finish, if You'll let me and not, and finish the job.

16 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: And the only asset, which I'm trying to explain to you--

17 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You're not hearing me, you're not hearing me.

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: The only thing possibly that I can even get back, because
2 he's moved it into living trusts or retirement trusts. OK?

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: but that's what the trustee is going to help us find.

4 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Is that house. If that house, he's taking, to the home equity
5 is looked at, there's no--

6 He's taking it, I've lost, if that house sells that's it.

7 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Nothing has changed in terms of our strategy from the 8 beginning. we've always said that. we never said I was going to handle matrimonial stuff.
9 I said I would get the debt.

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: You have, you have. and that's--

11 LAWRENCE MORRISON: And I said I would try to find out where the money went,
12 and that's part 2.

13 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: And August 20th, Terry, despite us having, which I, I
14 mean you were copied in on it. we were filing for nominal--

15 Went into a backroom conference, which I said to him no more backroom conferences.
16 Everything on record. And people from American Legal Reform. which, ironically, the 17 guy happens to be a friend of mine. I didn't realize that that's what he does.

18 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But these are all matrimonial things that get you upset.
19 Doesn't happen here.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: he walked into the back room and came out, and 180 on
2 me. Just understand where I'm coming from.

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But that's not who we are. If YOU don't, if we want to finish
4 the job here. We've never done a 180 on you. We've always said the same thing
5 consistently.

6 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: But for, and just understand and, my apologies. I am
7 apologizing. but, understand where I'm coming from. Four attorneys that all have done ...
8 What it, because it's a judge--

9 And I get it. They're not going to, in hindsight, they're not going to ruin their career with,
10 for one person when a judge is sitting there that they work with every day. I understand.

11 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But that's not us. And first of all, let's take a step back.
12 You're upset, and you should be with the system, in the state court proceedings. but 13 nothing like that has happened here. You went with me, we went to the trustees meeting.

14

15 You got a, the trustee was sympathetic. you told your story, it was an open transparent
16 process. The reason that the transcript was, nothing is done in backrooms in your 17 bankruptcy court.

18 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I don't know this. just--

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I'm telling you something. we have to accept it. You have to
2 accept things that I say, at least until it's not so. The transcript, I looked it. It showed that 3 we were fighting for you. there was nothing in there that was really negative, except the
4 judge was not, you know, was a little bit upsetting. When we turned to her and they asked
5 her, I said to her--

6 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: we heard that every day.

7 LAWRENCE MORRISON: About [reality? 0:27:13.6]

8 --I was like, woe. I don't know what she meant that.

9 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: No, it got converted.

10

11 LAWRENCE MORRISON: No no, she thought--

12 So what we said was what you told me to day. because I believed that you wanted to pay
13 your obligations back. And I think you still do. I said that you wanted to, and she goes,
14 "I've heard that before."

15 And that's what--

16 And you know, she's right. Because she has heard that before. but the good news was I
17 believed in you, and the trustee believed in you. And you saw it there in the record.

1 but You're going to have to compartmentalize this case, the matrimonial is going to be
2 very hard for you, and You're going to have to deal with the nonsense. But that's not my
3 case. And this will be, I think better for you. But if you want, so, what I will do, your 4 objection to the motion is not what I would do. I'll put something together which
5 comports with the rules. Because this, I mean, this is not something that I can present. I
6 can clean it up in a way that follows the rules, if you want me to. And we'll get it done.
7 And we'll take care of it.

8 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Mr. Morrison, again, my apologies. just understand from,
9 if I didn't do this myself, none of it--

10 But the part that they--

11 Right, but understand I would never--

12 LAWRENCE MORRISON: That's not me, that's--

13 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I personally have never had to go and deal personally with 14 our court systems. Whether or not federal or state. To me, court system is a court system.
15 I was raised that you tell the truth, and you respect.

16 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I know. but you're saying something that I'm not processing,
17 because, we tell the truth in this office. And we practice in a place where none of this 18 stuff really, I don't even know if this happens in the state court system generally. I believe 19 it if you tell me it happened in your case. I believe you.

20

1 but, you know. I practice in a place where there's openness and transparency.

2 Bankruptcy's about transparency.

3 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: but in reading his affidavit--

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: It's not on it. I'll tell you what, there's several things.

5 Purgered.

6 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: It's not purgered. First of all--

7 [Crosstalk: 0:28:58.1]

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I'll give you an example. But, he says he wasn't served. we 9 served him twice. We served the guy twice.

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: The divorce petition was served seven times on him.

11 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But you don't have to tell me that. at the end of the day, the 12 judge will say, "Yes, it was served."

13 Right? because we have an affidavit of service. Guess who served it? He's right here.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I know, and I saw that. the fact still remains--

15 LAWRENCE MORRISON: And you're focusing on things that don't have anything to do
16 with this case.

17 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: He's making conveyances that the state courts were ready
18 to rule on a dissolution of marriage, and equitable distribution.

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But you'll help me say that's not truly

2 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: It's incorrect. Because there's--

3 That was the whole reason with the filing for the application.

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: but then that's procedural stuff. but that's not stuff, but you, I
5 have, we have to be on the same page. This judge in bankruptcy court is not going to
6 decide matrimonial issues. You know that. We said it a thousand times. Every bankruptcy
7 lawyer knows it. I don't, like the internet, but you seem to love it. It's on the internet too.
8 That they don't decide these issues. So there's the deal.

10 I think we should, shake hands and tart again. I know you're upset, and I respect you, I
11 know why you're upset. But you should not be upset with us. We've done nothing.

12 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Understand, I don't know who to trust.

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But you've said that already. That's a mantra. But you're 14 smart. That's an emotional response.

15 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: all I know is, I look at this stuff. Whoever I go to, police 16 reports that--

17 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Your telling me things that--

18 But that has nothing to do with me. It's every, so you're saying because of your 19 experience, every lawyer's a bad person.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: No, I'm not saying everybody. You know what? I don't
2 know who to go to. To be quite honest--

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: you need a good matrimonial lawyer. that's who you need to
4 go to. We're taking, we are really good bankrupt--

5 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: So I need permission to hire one. And I need--

7 Right?

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: That's not hard.

9 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: and I--

10 LAWRENCE MORRISON: What permission do you need? It's a one-page paper, you
11 have to, that's not too hard.

12 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: OK, but, it has to be approved, and--

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: It will be approved.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I don't necessarily have, I petitioned the judge in Brooklyn
15 to, ...

16 LAWRENCE MORRISON: That's not the issue. The issue is, you haven't found that 17 right matrimonial lawyer that serves--

18 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I have to get out of the county, is what I have to be.

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I don't accept that, that every lawyer in this country is not
2 honorable and honest.

3 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: The judge is the one.

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Well, you've told me that. I can't, I believe it if you tell me,
5 but I've never seen anything like it. you don't have to show me anymore. I know that we
6 practice in a place that's completely honorable and above-board. That's all I can tell you.
7 That's all I can tell you.

9 I mean, the fact that you wrote this thing which is dishonest is troubling, but I'll deal with 10 it.

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Jane shanker, I would in ha heartbeat. And I asked her to,
12 I guess they don't want there's a change of attorney. But, I have no problem with Jane
13 shanker. She didn't even know how to tell me the order that came down, because she 14 said, "This isn't right."

15 My husband in open court admitted to lying to everything.

16 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I thought she spoke to your lawyer.

17 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: item Terry, who said, "no, we've got to stop
18 playing the victim here, and victimized victim."

19 So I said, "OK, let's do this because she didn't."

1 And then the order came down from the judge, she, Jen was beside herself. I mean
2 Jen I happen to really like, Jen happens to be the sister of my friend Norman Craig.

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You told me that it's a friend of a friend.

4 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: And so, I cried literally, it was hard to even tell her
5 that I signed. But, she wasn't going to do an annulment. And you know what? Changing
6 counties was the best thing I did. Because this judge, point blank, saw right through them.

7 LAWRENCE MORRISON: So then hire a lawyer from a different county.

8 M!: OK, well it's, hopefully I find an order to consolidate [Crosstalk: 0:32:32.9]

9 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You need a better lawyer lawyer. There's got to be a 10 good lawyer out there that will help you.

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Well, this whole thing is coming to King's county.
12 Because, that's, On November 5, I, he's part of the, what he signed was an order to 13 consolidate, to bring it to kings.

14 LAWRENCE MORRISON: OK. But you've got to get this thing out of your 15 head. You know, I can't work with someone who doesn't trust me. First of all, there's no
16 reason for it. because we are completely honorable honest people. And second of all, it
17 troubles me, because it says something about you as a client.

18 M!: It troubles, you know what?

19 LAWRENCE MORRISON: There's nothing—

20 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: You know what? It troubles me that it goes, what 21 I've had to experience. because it it's against what I was taught.

22 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You haven't experienced that with us.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I'm not saying with you, but, understand I spent a
2 year in a system that I've just been beat up and abused for telling the truth.

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: That's fair. But you haven't had that here. But I just 4 don't understand, and you're smart, why you know, you can't make the distinction. It's 5 like all lawyers are the same.

6 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I've had people show up at my doorstep with 7 handcuffs and shackles, don't know who they're, I mean—

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I don't, you haven't had one single issue with us.
9 You received—

10 There've been no surprises.

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: and you're the only person I've said that too
12 repeatedly.

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But that's my everyday existence.

14 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: How many times did I say to you, take the case?

15 LAWRENCE MORRISON: But I don't—

16 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: You want to get this finished. I understand. But 17 understand, and, it's not to be offensive, from my perspective, I don't know how.

18 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I can't say that you do, but, it is offensive. Because 19 there's nothing in our conduct that would lump us together with the people that 20 [crosstalk: did this to you? 0:34:03.2]

21 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: You're right. I never, I've never hear from you, but 22 it's taken care of.

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Which is the better thing?

2 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Correct, and—

3 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS Say you never hear from me, you hear from me
4 when we have things to talk about. Not just to talk about the thing.

5 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Or, on a weekend evening, you've put time aside and
6 actually called me. And I appreciate that. And I've said that to you many times. You
7 know—

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I don't see the problem with our relationship. You
9 should have problems with these guys Let's try to finish all your documents.

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: My problem is when I saw that, and everything
11 started going down the way again last week. To me that's all contrived together.

12 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Well you think you're going to end up back in the 13 rabbit-hole of matrimonial court. But you may or may not. But it doesn't mean you still 14 don't—

15 See here's what I don't think you're, maybe we're, we've been very clear about it
16 but let me make sure you get it again. And we'll do it, I'm always here. You want to ask
17 me, a thousand times. Let me finish my point, because this is important.

19 So you have a perspective that if state relief is granted, it's game over for out. But it's 20 not. because the bankruptcy court still have the power and go back and sue and get all
21 those transfers. You think that's not the case—

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Unless they go out of the country, now. Or
2 anything goes out—

3 They have accounts, I have to tell you. His mother is a citizen.

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You're looking for reasons not to succeed.

5 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I'd rather not go down, I'd rather get this done—

6 LAWRENCE MORRISON: the bankruptcy court powers are all about assets of 7 the estate. And that won't change. If you want to have, if you want to stop the finishing
8 up of your divorce, and not having a divorce decree, then the judge will not do that for 9 you.

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: That's not my point. My point is—

11 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Can I finish? Give me a chance to finish my point.
12 So, let's do that. If this, if you want, so you know this. The bankruptcy judge is not going
13 to decide issues of matrimonial law. Not going to decide equitable distribution. Not going 14 to decide whether or not the grounds or fault, or any of that stuff.

15
16 But what she can do, even if state relief was granted tomorrow. And even if you
17 got to go back and you got your divorce. And even equitable distribution was decided,
18 this judge still has the power to go look back six years from the date that you filed and 19 pull back in all the money that was stolen.

20
21 AND I've been saying that. I'm always clear. And one of the good things about me is 22 I've always said the same thing consistently.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I remember one thing you had said when we filed
2 is, we have to file quickly before anymore deporters are issues or granted. And that sticks
3 with me. Which is where, when I read the dissolution of marriage, I revert back to that.

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I think that's an over simplification. But that's fine.
5 Anyway, the good news is, we stand on our record, we do good work. We'll always do
6 good work for you. we want to continue our relationship. We like you and we want to 7 finish the job.

9 But we have to do it a little bit differently. If you get us sad, say, "Look, I need to 10 chat."

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: To me, I feel safer, to get the discovery done. To 12 let them. I mean, all that debt is—

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I will put together some kind of proposition in state
14 relief, but it will have to comport with the rules. It won't be about, it's not about what 15 you're saying.

16 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I'm not an attorney. I'm not an attorney.

17 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I'm not, no one's saying you're an attorney. And no
18 one's asking you to be an attorney. But that's why you're relying on us to be good
19 bankruptcy attorneys, right? I'm not a trademark attorney. My partner Gerald is. I don't 20 know anything about trademarks.

22 I know basic stuff about it. So.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Look, to even be in bankruptcy stuff for debt, that I
2 didn't even do.

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You're here. You're here.

4 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: you're right.

5 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You can't do that. It's like, you it's just, you're here.

6 And, you don't believe it but it's actually protecting you from phone calls and 7 harassment. And all of these debts are going to be discharged.

8 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Capitola sent me bills.

9 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Well you want to pay them right? You're so happy
10 with the service.

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I mean he's double-charged. They sent me the 12 arbitration.

13 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You said, so, just to say you'll pay half the bill?
14 No?

15 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: From when? I don't know, I have no idea, can't get from 16 where.

17 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I have no idea.

18 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: but the home equity, that should be—

19 My thing is, basically, to get the discovery done. Because—

20 LAWRENCE MORRISON: We'll get it done anyway. You want to get it done and stop 21 state relief first. I'm not promising you that. But I will promise you that, if there's some 22 money to find, trustee will find it. And—

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I mean, likely, his claim marks that property. Ideally, and
2 you know this, I'd like to keep my home. But I don't know if that's—

3 I mean, am I holding onto something that's a dream? And, if so then, does it pay to then 4 order it sold, and take it? But—

5 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: that's a business decision. It's got nothing to do with 6 bankruptcy.

7 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Is there not a chance that I'm going to get my, be able to 8 get, my, am I able to homestead this?

9 LAWRENCE MORRISON: You are able to homestead this.

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: because the transcript or something, I think, there was 11 some, at one point—

12 LAWRENCE MORRISON: It doesn't make a difference whether you homestead it or 13 not. because I believe that there's enough debt on the property, that it's not an issue of, no
14 one's going to, there's no equity.

15 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: There's no equity.

16 LAWRENCE MORRISON: There's no equity purchased to the—=

17 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: He stripped the equity.

18 LAWRENCE MORRISON: yeah. So, you're not going to lose the property. Because of 19 the bankruptcy filing, I trust you won't sell your interest. SO you have the best of both
20 worlds. But the problem again is that people look at the internet. And they look around
21 the fact that, you can't homestead your apartment.

1 I don't think that's true, but even if it is true, the value is, what's your apartment worth?

2 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: a thousand.

3 LAWRENCE MORRISON: So, you can keep it anyway. ...

4 But people, it's a problem. The internet is a problem. Because of misinformation. And 5 people do it, I can't tell them no.

7 I had somebody claim in the very beginning I can't remember they looked up something,
8 it was completely wrong. And they thought it was right. And so, you know, I think they 9 said something to the trustee And the trustee was like, where'd you get that, On the 10 internet? They're like, yeah. They're like, it's misinformation.

11 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: I mean, I'd like to to be able walk [unknown: 0:39:53.3]
12 because I doubt I'm getting money out of my husband. To be quite honest with you. with 13 all the money he stole. And I doubt I'm getting it done.

14 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Why don't we deal with one thing at a time? and that's, and,
15 you obviously have seven different things you want to address. Let's address first,
16 getting, seeing if I can figure out a way to object to the state of relief, this is important,
17 with the legal reason. Not the fact that, you know, you just want more time. And then
18 take it from there.

20 And then we have to get you a matrimonial lawyer that knows what they're doing. And 21 not everyone in your, I don't agree with you that every matrimony lawyer is dishonest.

22 M!: It's—

1 LAWRENCE MORRISON: That doesn't make sense. There's five hundred, how many
2 lawyers in New York? Four hundred thousand? They're all dishonest? Don't show me
3 any documents.

4 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: No, I was just going to say, the email from Terry Shrike.
5 This isn't necessarily, it's the—
6 When you walk in, and, this is the judge that you work day in and day out. And he sits
7 there and says, "Remember that lunch? Your client's the bad woman."

8 Someone, they're not going to ruin their career. And—

9 LAWRENCE MORRISON: We've already addressed that issue, of ad different venue.

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: well, November fifth we'll see. I mean, they're trying,
11 they objected to it obviously. And I had, the way they were behaving and all these things.
12 The 19th of October, likely they were going to try and get me on a default of 13 nonappearance.

14 LAWRENCE MORRISON: OK.

15 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: SO now that's been rectified. But, you know.

16 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Sounds like a big mess. But your story back.

17 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: And you know what it is to have your story back, I'm 18 living and breathing as opposed to what I should be doing, and focusing on myself. And 19 you know what? that's sad.

20 LAWRENCE MORRISON: It is sad. But you're doing the best you can, right? What are 21 you going to do? Do you want to give up? Do you want to fight? I mean that's, those are 22 your life decisions. That's not the aim of a lawyer.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: What he's done is inhumane. You don't do that.

2 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: it's already been done, and it's finished right?

3 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: OK. But.

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: So alright. I know what we need to do. We'll put together
5 something objecting to state relief based on, what you could do, not an email. Because I
6 hate emails. Call Marcos, and tell him what you think. Because you know better than me,
7 whether the matrimonial case is not honest in this motion.

8 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: We're nowhere near equitable distribution. We haven't
9 even entered into discussion.

10 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Just say what element it is and we'll put together deposition.
11 Let me list all this down. So, there ...

12 Brian's husband made a motion for state relief, because they can't do anything because 13 of the bankruptcy right. And then they were going to go bust. But they're saying things in 14 their motion that are not true. So Brian has a list of what those things are. So you guys
15 can look through—

16 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: The other thing. The court appellate division, won't
17 proceed on looking at the PLM unless they have permission.

18 M@: why don't we, so you, for preparation from the court? Bankruptcy court?

19 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: yeah.

20 LAWRENCE MORRISON: So, what we really should do is have our own motion for 21 state relief. So you can continue the case in the appellate division. What about division
22 get through?

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: second department?

2 LAWRENCE MORRISON: No, which case, you've got so many—

3 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: The matrimonial.

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: Which one? This one bagged in Brooklyn?

5 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: No, this one, Brooklyn didn't even start yet. It's
6 something. Btu it's going to merge. Brooklyn will wind up consolidating into one venue
7 hopefully.

8 LAWRENCE MORRISON: well that's good news.

9 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: well, that's the motion November fifth is, I basically I file
10 for Norman to post to Norfolk, and it being petitioned to be in an integrated domestic 11 violence court. It's not apples to apples. So that should merge into the other.

12 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I understand. You know what, we didn't answer the 13 question. SO Jennifer Shankar is no longer the lawyer representing you. You've been 14 with this other guy who turned out to be bad news, and he's gone.

15 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: He filed a motion. I basically—

16 LAWRENCE MORRISON: just help me. Is he gone or not?

17 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Yeah He's gone. He filed a motion that I went on docket
18 yesterday. But apparently two weeks ago that they used as an excuse for a stay. like, they 19 used in a matrimonial the bankruptcy as a reason to not turn over discovery. My filing of 20 bankruptcy stayed discovery, which—

21 LAWRENCE MORRISON: but that's hypocritical. Because they want state relief so they 22 can get the new discovery.

1 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Well, and I turned over discovery. I have email stick, a
2 friend of mine dropped off and turned over my discovery. November 24. We didn't file it
3 till months later. They used it as an excuse, and ...

4 LAWRENCE MORRISON: This is the proposal from Brian that he was going to file. We
5 can't file this. This is all wrong.

7 You want to hold him in concept of court. You can't do this stuff. I mean you can, but it
8 won't work. Listen you've got to do everything by the book, go ahead and follow the 9 rules. Which is what we should be doing.

10 BRIAN DENKER-YOUNGS: Just, you want to force—

11 LAWRENCE MORRISON: I have no idea. I know that I go through rules. It's 12 alright to work for you for almost 20 years.

FROST & SULLIVAN GROWTH CONSULTING

December 10, 2014

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to confirm that Brian Denker-Youngs (Brian Denker) is an employee with Frost & Sullivan since 2004. Brian Denker- Youngs is Vice President - Growth, Innovation and Leadership and is a remote - at home office employee given the nature of his responsibilities that require his support for all of our global offices for Frost & Sullivan. Brian is set up in this capacity, as his role with our company requires communication with Global office teams in a wide range of time zones, requiring frequent after hours and late night/early morning conference calls. He is based out of his home office in Huntington, New York for which we provide office supplies as required and needed to that location which also has served to be mutually beneficial given the proximity to a fellow colleague who also works from her home office in the same town, as well as two key clients who are situated in and around the area of Huntington and Hicksville.

From time-to-time Brian hold meetings with clients out of his home office as well as attend meetings in New York City on occasion. He has been working in this fashion for approximately 2-years or so which commenced just prior to an initial operation he underwent in January 2013.

Should you require any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

To Whom it May Concern:

My husband and I met Rabbi Brian during August of 2013 in our search to find a clergyman to marry us. Since our wedding in October 2013, my husband has developed a great rapport with the Rabbi and he has become the family's "go-to" clergyman. In January 2014 my husband Larry had a stroke which has left him not only out of work, but unable to run both of his companies. Needless to say, he is now also suffering from major depression. He meets weekly with Rabbi Brian, which he looks forward to each week. Rabbi Brian's help and weekly meetings providing spiritual and religious support for Larry has helped both the family, and I, as well as my husband to stay positive and be optimistic during his recuperation.

Our weekly scheduled visits vary either taking place at our home in Syosset or at the Rabbi's home office in Huntington, New York which is only 10 minutes from our home.

Dear Brian:

On behalf of Prince Associates Inc., I would like to thank you for the opportunity to handle your Insurance needs.

I am pleased to enclose the above referenced policy.

Please review the policy for accuracy and notify us if there are any changes or corrections that need to be made. This policy is subject to all policy conditions, warranties, exclusion, and deductibles.

Also note that this policy is on a direct billing system with the Insurance Company. Under this system the Insurance Company handles all billing and credits direct to you and all premiums are to be paid direct to the Insurance Company.

Lastly, there is one document (New York Fraud Statement) that you must sign, date and return to me so I can forward to the insurance company. It is following this coverletter, please sign date and return to me.

Please contact our office should you have any questions or if we can be any further assistance.

Thank you again for allowing Prince Associates to serve your insurance needs.

Very truly yours,

Adam Brielloff

MODERN DIVINITIES

MODERN MATRIMONIES | MODERN SIMCHAS | MODERN MEMORIALS

tel. 267.CALL.US1 www.moderndivinities.com e: admin@moderndivinities.com

Business Requirement: All properties/catering venues / facilities require a minimum of $2million business liability coverage inclusive of cancellations, damages, and assets, onsite as well as general storage and damage of equipment at business location. Without this insurance policy, we are not allowed on property.

Challenge 1: Brand and Identity – LongIslandChuppah is exactly just that – LONGISLANDChuppah.com

Challenge 2: We own and possess 6 assets along with various décor and fabrics

Challenge 3: Our two key suppliers are both within distance of Huntington and accessible especially given all Sunday bookings must have floral picked up and stored Saturday by noon. (where does one store in a one room apartment in Brooklyn and also keep intact for such a long transport

The Fabric Mill
219 South Service Road
Plainview, NY 11803

often need to run up to retrieve fabric samples for quotes

J Murello Imports
240 Newtown Road
Plainview, NY 11803

often run up to scope / price fresh floral designs in person

Challenge 4: Both "Aunt's" garage (John's suggested storage area) - My aunt is an 81 year old woman who has a car and is kept in this garage most of the time as she does not drive much anymore. She also resides in an Co-Operative Development in Queens. As such chuppahs cannot be stored there as the business liability insurance covers them at our business location / storage location. If renting storage this increases monthly overhead without any insight into sales projections annually to ensure costs are covered.

Challenge 5: Two (2) issues here, most board of director regulations for co-operatives – businesses cannot operate out of apartments this is true for my aunt as well as my Bklyn apartment. Second both my apartment and my aunts are within New York City limits thus the company's entire tax filings, collections and payables increase for addition of city taxes.

Challenges – no central location to meet clients therefore cannot schedule or book as make couple to meet with in a day
Meeting at a Starbucks is unprofessional, not confidential or private
Would Lou Simonetti meet with clients and operate his practice out of a Starbucks?

Overall challenge – given 48hrs to leave in December, business is practically shut down. Need to be able to strategically transition and relocate a business and its operations otherwise might as well close it down. Thus my annual income is now even less, reputation is impacted and overall non-existent.
